

Having trouble reading this email? View it in your browser

MISSOURIANmonday briefing

Monday, September 18th, 2017

Q&A with chief Burton; Tigers fall to Purdue; MU receives $21.6 million; campus climate

By Taylor Blatchford and Jack Harvel, Community Outreach Team

Good morning and welcome to this week's briefing. We've gathered our top stories from last week and highlighted activities coming up around Columbia.

We hope our weekly email is one of your favorite things to skim on Monday mornings. Have feedback for us? Tell us what you think!

Police Chief Ken Burton talked with the Missourian about racial profiling, community policing and why he wishes he had the resources to take a "deeper dive" into his department's traffic stop data. Read the full Q&A to see what he had to say.

Missouri football was outperformed by Purdue in a 35-3 loss Saturday. The team continues to be plagued by defensive troubles, but a 60-foot tall pyrotechnics display gave fans a thrill.

The former CEO of Yum Brands donated $21.6 million to MU on Friday. The gift from David Novak, a 1974 MU alumnus, endowed the Novak Leadership Institute. It marked the fourth-largest known academic gift in MU history. The institute will offer leadership courses and programs that emphasize research, strategy, creativity and collaboration.

MU released the results of a campus climate survey from last fall. About two-thirds of students, faculty and staff said they feel comfortable or very comfortable on campus. The national average is 70 to 80 percent. Chancellor Alexander Cartwright said the university's goal is create a place where everyone will feel "safe and experience a welcoming environment to work, live and learn." Full results for the survey will be released this Friday.

Around CoMo this week

- 8 p.m. Tuesday: Tech N9ne in concert
- 7 p.m. Wednesday: Missouri women's volleyball vs. Kentucky

- 8:30 p.m. Wednesday: Movies in the Park: Harry Potter and the Sorcerer's Stone
 - All day Friday and Saturday: Fall Flea Market
 - 6 p.m. Saturday: Missouri football vs. Auburn
-

Are you a CHIP recipient?

We're looking for Columbia families who use the Children's Health Insurance Program, which may lose funding as of Sept. 30. How would you be affected if CHIP is not extended? Get in touch with us to share your perspective.

Photos from the week

PHOTO GALLERY: Columbia Adult Kickball League

PHOTO GALLERY: Day Two of St. Louis

PHOTO GALLERY: Protests break out after

Protests

PHOTO GALLERY: Missouri Football falls to the Boilermakers during Family Weekend

police officer acquitted in St. Louis

PHOTO GALLERY: MU fans and their families flock to Columbia for the Missouri vs. Purdue game

This week's forecast

DAY	PRECIP	TEMP
 MON	80%	80° 65°
 TUE	20%	88° 69°
 WED	10%	92° 69°
 THU	10%	90° 68°
 FRI	10%	90° 67°
 SAT	10%	89° 67°
 SUN	10%	87° 63°

Thanks for reading. Have a great week!

columbiamissourian.com

221 South 8th Street

Columbia, MO 65201

Phone: 573-882-5714

Email: news@columbiamissourian.com

Follow breaking news and join the conversation on social media:

The Columbia Missourian, 221 South 8th Street, Columbia, MO 65201